

RESTORED FROM OBSERVER & ECCENTRIC NEWSPAPER

Thursday, March 12, 1998

CHAPELS PERFORM AT RIVERSIDE PARK CHURCH

Writer source not available.

The Chapels will bring their southern Gospel music and testimonies to the Riverside Park Church of God, 11771 Newburgh Road, at Plymouth Road, Livonia, at 10:45 a.m. Sunday, March 15.

Bobby Crumpler, Ron Newsome and Jimi Talbott Jr. formed the group with the thought of helping the church fulfill God's command of winning the lost, edifying the church and bringing honor to the name of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Bobby Crumpler, a Plymouth resident, is following in the footsteps of his father, the late Denver Crumpler who sang with the legendary Rangers and Statesman Quartet in the 1950s.

He is continuing the tradition with a classic southern gospel sound and also has written songs for several of The Chapels' albums.

Newsome lives in Allen Park and is the son of Buck Newsome for the Detroit-based Good News Quartet. He recorded his first album with the Keynotes at the age of 14. He has recorded two more albums and in 1974, performed with the Keynotes at the Grand Ole Opry.

Talbott is a Redford resident whose father James is a former piano player for the Toney Brothers Quintet. The younger Talbott, who recently sang baritone and played the piano for the Group Crimson, counts quality song writing, arranging and piano playing among his many musical skills.